A period of Prayer, Reflection and Planning for the renewal of the Church in the Archdiocese of Dublin

This resource is for use in the nine days from 1st – 9th June beginning on the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord, through Pentecost and continuing to the Feast of St Columba (St Colmcille), one of the three patron saints of Ireland. You are warmly invited to join together in this annual Novena to the Holy Spirit – a period of prayer, reflection and planning for the renewal of the Church in the Archdiocese of Dublin.

The Novena Prayer for daily use, is available on the next page and on the Prayer Card. Other prayer resources are offered here under a daily theme connected to the Values set out in the Building Hope Pastoral Strategic Planning Resource (page 8), a daily introduction, images and intercessions. These resources, day by day, will be your companion for this period of prayer. Please feel free to use the prayer material during the Mass and at your parish/partnership pastoral council, parish team or ministry group gatherings.

Let us as a diocese, unite together in prayer as one People of God, during this dedicated period of the Novena. May this time of reflection and planning in every parish and partnership in the Archdiocese of Dublin be blessed and build hope.

*‘With the light and the strength of the Holy Spirit, let us build a Church founded on God’s love, a sign of unity,
a missionary Church that opens its arms to the world,
proclaims the Word, allows itself to be made “restless” by history,
and becomes a leaven of harmony for humanity.’*

Pope Leo XIV, Mass of Inauguration, 18th May 2025

Introduction:

Ascension marks Day One of our Novena to the Holy Spirit for the renewal of the Church in the Archdiocese of Dublin.

The theme for today is “Grounded in the Mission of Jesus” inspired by this quotation from our First Reading... “you will be my witnesses ... to the ends of the earth.” [Acts 1:8]

Novena Day Three – 3 June 2025
Theme: Change – Opportunity and Challenge

Introduction:

On Day Three of our Novena to the Holy Spirit for the renewal of the Church in the Archdiocese of Dublin our theme is “Change – Opportunity and Challenge” inspired by this quotation from our First Reading – “The Lord is a stronghold to the one whose way is upright” [Proverbs 10:32] and from the life of St Kevin.

St Kevin, an upright man, crossed the mountains to find a sacred space at the foot of the Upper Lake of Glendalough. This radical change was challenging for him. He felt called to be a hermit but his holiness attracted many people who formed a community around him. This challenge opened up an opportunity and that Christian settlement lived there beyond the death of its prayerful leader in 618.

Intercessions:

Called together as a prayerful people we offer our intercessions with gentle confidence

1. We pray for our community here today (and those who join us on the webcam): that we will be open to the opportunities and challenges that come our way.
2. We pray for those who long for peace of mind: that they will find rest.
3. We pray for all in need throughout the world: that we will lift them up by our concern and practical help.

God of inspiration and kindness,
Listen to the prayers of your faithful
that we ask in the Spirit,
through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

hear our prayers and answer our pleas.
We ask this in the Spirit,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Intercessions:

Gathered together as people of the Good News, we bring our intercessions before God.

1. We pray for our community here today (and those who join us on the webcam): that we will enrich our hearts by reflecting regularly on the Gospels.
2. We pray for those who are called to preach the Gospel: that they will open up the treasures of the Good News to all.

This scripture passage might inspire us to look at the language we use to share the Word and lead prayer in our communities.

Novena Day Nine – 9 June 2025
Theme: Building a culture of LISTENING

Introduction:

On Day Nine of our Novena to the Holy Spirit for the renewal of the Church in the Archdiocese of Dublin our theme is “Building a culture of LISTENING” inspired by this quotation from the gospel for the feast of St Columba – “Why are you afraid, you of little faith?” [Matt 8:26]

Sometimes we are afraid to stop speaking, for fear of what we will hear. The Synodal process is all about ‘listening’ with respect for all points of view.

Intercessions:

Called together as a ‘listening’ people we present our intercessions with humility

1. We pray for our community here today (and those who join us on the webcam): that we will attune ourselves to listening mode.
2. We pray for those who have lost faith in their own abilities to change: that they will open their ears to the possibilities of different opinions.
3. We pray for all in need at this time: that we will lift them up by our concern and practical help.

God of hope and strength,

Listen to the prayers we ask in the Spirit, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
