Donal Neary S.J. Gospel Reflection ~ Hand over to God

In the smallest of the details of our love and the biggest, God is near. God is near with love and also with care. We might think of it as a powerful care - power not for himself but for us.

God's Power enables us to do what we can't do ourselves, like people in AA who hand their lives over to the higher power each day. Sometimes we find when we are at our lowest God is at his strongest in our lives.

Augustine wrote that 'when we love ourselves least, God loves us most.'

Where do we find him, or rather where does God find us? God is present in all things - we don't have to go to Church or read the bible to find God, as God is present to us in many ways.

God is in all of creation - love and friendship, a sunset or sunrise. His hand is in our food and drink, our work, study, reflection and insights. He is ever present in our efforts to live well, to stay clean of drugs, alcohol or crime. God is in the midst of real life and in the centre of the soul, is a space where nobody can enter without our welcome and invitation, and where God dwells.

When we see Jesus in action we know the kingdom is very near.

At Christmas we welcomed the kingdom, in the love for the poor, in the miracle of human birth.

At Easter we welcomed the kingdom as the place of eternity, of victory over death and pain, of justice over injustice. All the time welcoming the kingdom, whose real power is love and whose hope still today, is the coming of justice and peace.

Lord, may your kingdom come, and your will be done on Earth.
