Gospel Reflections Losing and Finding Donal Neary SJ

Giving up is part of life – you give up your time and money for your children and grandchildren. Parents say it was worth it for the joy in their faces. A person goes to work for the poor and gives up a better job. You want to do more study and know you have to leave some leisure aside that you like. In sport we sacrifice a lot to train and to do well. But something else comes through for us when we give up. If it's real and true we get back a lot. It seems strange for Jesus to say – lose your life to save it. He's talking about losing good things, to get better.

This can be a big challenge in a culture today that is very 'me' conscious. We can find that personal concerns take total precedence, without enough care for others. But as long as one person on this globe is hungry or homeless or seeking refuge, the work of Jesus is never done.

Losing life and saving life with Jesus is a call to community, to neighbourhood and the world, to make our part of the world a better place.

My own life may be my main concern, my circle of care may extend just as far as myself, ignoring care in a sustained way for the stranger or the outcast, then I am called to the challenge of the gospel to lose selfishness, and find the generosity given in my heart by God.

*Think ahead to today or this week.
Offer love and service to God.
Lord, teach me to be generous in your service*

Congratulations

Wicklow Town ICA Guild

Wicklow Town ICA Guild has been operating in the Parish Centre for the past 10 years meeting, on the second Monday of each month, with the customary tea and cake, from September to June. The diverse activities engaged in range from crafts including beading, felting, upcycling fashion and small furniture to making cards and decorations and performing in small drama presentations. Besides meetings the guild also organises a number of days out, theatre trip and get-togethers as well as social and fundraising events. Members participate in Federation evenings and some have also been active on the Wicklow Federation Committee and on the ICA National Executive Board.

Twice yearly weekends in the ICA Educational Centre in An Grianan are an opportunity to meet up with members from other guilds and try out a new skill while being nurtured and entertained in the comfort of this lovely historic building. While there is no pressure on any member to participate in competition some members enjoy taking part in Wicklow Federation and ICA National competitions and have been winners in creative writing, art and crafts, flower arranging, public speaking and photography on a number of occasions.

New members are always welcome to join the guild on 2nd Monday of each month in St Patricks Room in Parish Centre beside St Patricks Church at 7.30 for short meeting, a skill, a game, a getting to know you activity or input from a local group followed by opportunity to chat and sample the supper provided by our hosts for the evening.

Next meeting on Monday 9th September at 7.30

Thank you!

To everybody who worked so hard to make the return of Bishop Donal Roche such a special occasion. To all those who donated and who collected money after Mass a couple of weeks ago for the gifts. To our choir who came back a week early for the occasion. To Aidan our sacristan for all the effort he put in on the day - our altar servers, readers & Eucharistic Ministers who we were delighted to have join us on the day from the other churches in the Mantan area.

And of course no parish occasion would be the same without our Parish Hospitality and as usual - the team pulled out all the stops and fed hundreds, a sincere thank you to one and all for all the hard work and lovely treats.

Bishop Donal was presented with a fabulous full Mass kit and a donation and Fr Aquinas was also presented with a belated gift on the occasion of the 40th anniversary of his ordination which was earlier in the Summer. Bishop Donal's two sisters Dympna & Jean were also surprised with gorgeous flower bouquets.

A final thank you to the Parish Office team for their help and input into the occasion.
